“An authoritative, efficient, one-stop shop for facts.”—Choice

★ Library Journal Best Reference

★ Booklist Editor's Choice

★ CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title

Since its launch in 2003, Oxford Reference Online Premium has been at the forefront of delivering high quality reference works in a single cross-searchable database. The collection has since firmly established itself as the reference database of choice in universities, colleges, schools, and public libraries across the world.

Oxford Reference Online Premium combines rich and scholarly resources offered by acclaimed titles in the Oxford Companions series with authoritative quick-reference coverage of the full subject spectrum. Since launch, the site has expanded to include access to over 170 ready reference dictionaries, as well as an ever-growing list of Oxford Companions titles, over 450 political and geographical maps, and timelines to key events throughout history. Updated at least three times a year, Oxford Reference Online Premium is an absolute must-have for all libraries and institutions.

Oxford Reference Online Premium now features over 50,000 links between articles and from biographies out to sites like the Oxford Dictionary of National Biography, the American National Biography Online, Grove Art Online and Grove Music Online for mutual subscribers. This ongoing linking program not only connects users to more in-depth content, but also provides paths to further research.

NEW! Search Oxford Reference Online's literature titles direct from CSA/Proquest's Literature Online!

Over thirty prestigious literary reference titles from the Premium and Literature Collections of Oxford Reference Online can now be cross-searched from CSA/Proquest's Literature Online interface, bringing together two of the most authoritative and respected electronic resources for literary study.
