Join this growing field

Translators and interpreters are in high demand. The hispanic population is growing daily in the U.S., and Spanish-speakers need written documents that they understand.

As a translation specialist, you will take written documents and translate them from Spanish to English or English to Spanish.

Discover how to work with

- medical documents,
- educational transcripts,
- casino safety manuals,
- legal documents and more.

Enjoy the flexibility of being able to work from your own home, on your own time. In addition, this important work can provide you and your family with a second income. A certified translator's starting salary is about $20 per hour.

Learn applicable job skills in the translation program

You will learn many new skills that can help you discover more job opportunities. During the course, learn how to

- practice written translation techniques,
- study linguistics,
- make appropriate cultural references,
- understand medical and legal terminology,
- develop proofreading skills and
- pursue employment as a translator once you have your certificate of completion.

Is this program right for you?

In order to enroll in this program you are expected to possess a high level of proficiency in both Spanish and English.

Earn a certificate of completion

At the end of this basic course, you will be awarded a certificate of completion that lists all of the skills you have mastered.
