The entire meeting was a discussion on the upcoming Earth Day, April 22 and our collaboration with Sustainability Champions in making it happen. The theme for Earth Day this year is "Investing in our Planet – seeking solutions to combat climate change." We discussed as a committee how to facilitate that.

Morgan Locandro proposed an essay contest with a broad prompt for discussing Earth Day and I suggested a poster contest, but the committee was evidently underwhelmed. The discussion turned instead to contacting business and environmental organizations to set up booths in the Red Mountain open area to create greater awareness and interest on campus. John K. will work with Cecilia Vigil and the Sustainability Champs to get the ball rolling.

Next meeting: Thursday, April 7, 2022 at 3:30-4:30 p.m. via Zoom

Meeting adjourned: 4:25 p.m.
